

Starting Right

Max Barnett

I. Introduction. God enables a person to start over right with Him.

II. There is such a thing as truth, and we must live our lives by this.

A. Absolutes exist.

B. Some claim that it is irrelevant whether Jesus rose from the dead or not, but this is not true. (I Corinthians 15)

1. The reality of Jesus' resurrection matters.

2. Our faith is centered upon fact. Hundreds witnessed the resurrection.

III. Live your life on truth.

A. The Bible is truth. (John 17:17, 15:6, Jeremiah 10:10)

B. Get involved in a discipleship team so that you can hear the truth and learn how to discern what is true.

C. Learn to be a disciplined follower of Christ.

Application questions:

1. Why is the resurrection important to the Christian faith?

---

---

2. How would you respond to someone who says that faith is just a feel-good thing?

---

---

3. What are you doing in order to saturate your life in the truth? What more can you do?

---

---