

Guide for Making Disciples on College Campuses

Max Barnett

I. Introduction.

- A. Pride keeps us from working with others as a team.
- B. If you understand the principle, you can adapt the method. (Proverbs 14:6)

II. A freshman ministry team.

- A. Freshman rallies are used to recruit.
- B. The ministry team is invested in and separated into groups for ministry.
- C. The ministry team is approached about being involved in leadership, but they are kept from being a part of ministry for a year for development.
- D. Freshman are asked to pay the price for ministry with commitment and accountability.
- E. Students are given responsibilities to get them involved.

III. The characteristics of a healthy ministry.

- A. The Bible is the basis of all the ministries.
- B. The director must live a life of character.
- C. The director must have a clear vision.
- D. Students are tremendously important with regard to the Great Commission.
- E. Organization comes out of strategy.

Application questions:

1. What principles come from the method Max uses for the freshman ministry team?

2. Why is it important that a ministry's director have a clear vision?

3. What are the goals of the ministry of which you are a part? Assess whether it is organized in a way that would best achieve those goals.
