

A Life Worthy of Him

Max Barnett

I. Introduction.

II. Jesus Christ is worthy of total commitment.

- A. Christ is worthy because of the freedom we have been given to worship Him.
- B. God is worthy because He is creator. (John 1:3)
- C. God is worthy because He is all knowing.
- D. God is worthy because He is omnipotent. (Jeremiah 42:27, Psalm 139:12, Acts 2:12)

III. Characteristics of a life worthy of God.

A. Commitment.

1. God will not make you miserable when you give your life to Him.
2. We are not to be afraid of suffering. (Luke 12:45, Matthew 12:39)
3. We all have to make a decision finally to be a living sacrifice to God. (Romans 12:1-2)
4. One must be committed to the authority of God in Scripture.

B. Spending time with God.

C. Holy living.

1. Sin is not funny—it cost Jesus His life and is costing others their lives. (I Peter 1:15-16)
2. The basis of acceptance is the blood of Christ, but one disciplines himself for godliness. Godliness is the motivation. (Matthew 28)
3. It is important to memorize verses and study because you are building a foundation for the rest of your life.
4. One must make sure he or she knows where his or her future spouse is going before making a commitment to marriage.
5. Life is short. (James 4:14)

Application questions:

1. What additional reasons that God is worthy can you add to the list the speaker provided?

2. How would you assess your own personal commitment to God based upon the daily choices you make? Explain.

3. How would you respond to someone who wants to grow spiritually without legalistic baggage? Explain.
