

Vision

Max Barnett

I. Introduction.

A. Mission statement: To know God intimately, to love, obey and glorify Him, to understand one's position in Christ and His body, to become all God desires you to be in knowledge, skill, character and vision with the desire that God uses you to the ends of the earth raising up multiplying laborers for the evangelization of the lost.

B. If a person is going to gain what he can gain from the BSU, it will require commitment.

II. Objectives.

A. To know God personally. (Jeremiah 29:12-13, Hosea 10:12, 6:6, Philippians 3:10)

1. There are no shortcuts.

2. One needs to get to know His Word and spend time with Him.

B. To obey God. (II Chronicles 31-32)

C. To glorify God.

1. We can glorify God in everything. (I Corinthians 10:31)

2. It is one's attitude that matters.

3. God does not share His glory. (Isaiah 42:8, Psalm 115:1, Isaiah 43:7)

D. To understand what God has done for you. (Romans 6-8)

E. To be part of a body. (Colossians 1:28-29)

F. To be everything God wants you to be. (Hosea 4:6)

G. To learn God's truth. (Proverbs 10:14, 20:14, 22:20-21)

H. To develop skills for ministry.

I. To multiply laborers for the evangelization of the world. (Matthew 9:36)

Application questions:

1. Which aspects of the vision do you find most important?

2. What does it look like to glorify God?

3. Write your own mission statement. Explain why you chose to emphasize the things that you have.
