

National Directors Conference
Max Barnett

I. Introduction.

- A. There are many difficulties to student work.
- B. There is a lack of salary, recognition, etc.

II. There are also many positives to student work.

- A. One is working with a person who is old enough to make a decision and make it stick.
- B. There are many students together in one place.
- C. Students can be reached before they have made big mistakes.
- D. Student work is a tremendous place to raise children.
- E. It is a place to trust God for support in.
- F. Students are more available than others are.
- G. There are times for withdrawal.
- H. We have the privilege of associating with God's choice servants.
- I. There is a great privilege of seeing God multiply one's work.
- J. There is a great opportunity to grow and change.

III. Bob Anderson's goals in China. (I Thessalonians 2)

Application questions:

1. What are some reasons not mentioned that you think more are not involved in student work? Explain.

2. Which reason for student work do you think is most compelling?

3. What other benefits would you add to the list of positives in student work?
