

Testimony

Max Barnett

I. Introduction.

A. Text: I Corinthians 3:6-7, 4:7.

B. God can do something with anyone. God is faithful.

II. Max got to know the Lord through some lonely times.

III. One time he was convicted about being obedient and the importance of being a witness, so he led someone to Christ and helped that person to lead someone else to the Lord also.

IV. Max and his friend began sharing their experience with the Baptist Student Union and surrounding churches by doing witnessing clinics.

V. Through his clinics, he led people to Christ. (Romans 10:13)

VI. Max began meeting with people to help them grow man to man.

VII. Max began praying for a wife, and God provided a wonderful wife. (Proverbs 18:22, Psalms 84:11, 34:10, 34:3)

VIII. Max prayed for a promise for his life. He asked God that He would give him men, and God fulfilled that request. (Isaiah 43:4)

Application questions:

1. What struck you most about Max's testimony? Explain.

2. Why is witnessing important to the Christian life?

3. How did Max model a multiplying ministry through his friend?
