Scripture Memory
Max Barnett

I. Introduction.

II. Reasons why it is important to memorize Scripture.

        A. To know Jesus Christ

                1. To become a Christian. (John 5:35, II Timothy 3)

                2. To walk on the right path. (Psalm 19:11)

                3. To get back on the right path. (I John 1:9)

        B. To keep a person from sin. (Psalm 119:111, Matthew 22:29)

        C. To grow. (I Peter 2:2, Acts 20:32)

        D. To help other Christians. (Ephesians 4:29, Luke 24:27)

        E. To witness. (I Peter 3:15)

III. Objections to Scripture memory.

        A. Scripture memory takes Scripture out of context.

                1. Jesus took Scripture out of context.

                2. One can learn the context through Scripture memory. (e.g., John 3:16)

        B. Why memorize when one can read it? One may not always be able to read a Bible though. (Joshua 1:8)

        C. It lacks in depth study. However, Scripture memory helps a person to meditate on it anywhere. (Colossians 3:16)

IV. A practical way to memorizing God's word.

        A. Write a verse down on a card with the topic and reference on the other side.

        B. Learn a verse in two or three days, but review it throughout the coming months in order to keep it. Use a review box.

        C. Get a friend to help check up on you.

        D. Watch out for pride—do not count how many verses you know.

E. Verses to start out (Acrostic: G.L.O.R.I.F.Y. T.H.E. L.O.R.D.): I Corinthians 10:31 (glorify), Matthew 22:36-38 (love), John 14:21 (obedience), Philippians 4:4 (rejoice), Colossians 4:12 (intercession), Hebrews 11:6 (faith), I Timothy 4:12 (youth), I Thessalonians 5:18 (thanksgiving), Mark 4:19 (hindrances), Ephesians 4:19 (edification), Luke 6:46 (lordship of Christ), Philippians 2:3-4 (always for others), Ephesians 6:1 (respect for others) and Romans 12:1-2 (dedication).
