

Collegiate Ministry

Max Barnett

I. Introduction.

II. The college campus is a great place to do ministry.

- A. Young people are needed to do ministry on the college campus.
- B. College students need more than preaching—they need a person to spend time with them.
- C. There are holes in a college student’s schedule for retreats.
- D. College students are more flexible with their time.

III. Testimony 1.

IV. Testimony 2.

V. One’s relationship with God and making disciples will always be a Christian’s priorities, and a college campus is a great place for these to grow.

VI. Question and answer.

Application questions:

1. Which reason the speaker gives for collegiate ministry do you find to be most compelling?

---

---

2. What are some other reasons one might want to consider ministry to college students?

---

---

3. How did the testimonies reinforce or influence your thinking about collegiate ministry? Explain.

---

---