

Discipling Women

Introduction

Disciples cannot be mass produced. We cannot drop people into a "program" and see disciples emerge at the end of the production line. It takes time to make disciples. It takes individual, personal attention.

LeRoy Eims, The Lost Art of Disciple Making

Goal ... to provide principles and perspective

The best way to learn to disciple someone is by being disciplined yourself – not from a 75 minute workshop

Assumptions

- You understand the vision
- You have the desire and heart
- You may be doing it already
- You may not have been disciplined yourself

Expectations

- This workshop is interactive, so please ask questions
- Keep your questions concise – if it takes more than 30 seconds to ask it, talk to me after

Agenda

- Who?
- How?
- What?
- Tools

You therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. And the things which you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses, these entrust to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.

So naturally we proclaim Christ! We warn everyone we meet, and we teach everyone we can, all that we know about Him, so that, if possible, we may bring every man up to his full maturity in Christ. This is what I'm working at all the time, with all the strength God gives me.

Activity 1 – Key Principles

Discuss the assigned statement and explain how it applies to disciple making

1. She did what she could, with what she had, where she was at
2. Never measure the man by the moment
3. Telling isn't teaching; listening isn't learning
4. Tell them why, show them how, get them started, keep them going
5. We lead out of who and what we are and not what we know
6. Jesus loved everyone, helped many, trained a few
7. People do what you inspect, not what you expect
8. Recruit to a vision and not to an activity or program
9. We reproduce what we are
10. She will do with others what you do with her
11. Train for the 4th generation
12. This one thing I do, not these ten things I dabble at
13. Never tell her something that she could discover for herself if you just asked the right question
14. Character is caught, not taught
15. Principles not programs
