

Promises of God in the Navigators

Lorne Sanny

I. Introduction.

- A. The Navigators is based upon promises given to men.
- B. The promises are sure and the Bible is like a diamond mine of promises. (2 Corinthians 1:20)

II. Promises of God.

- A. Jesus knocks and will come into those whomever will receive Him. (Revelation 2:20, 1 Corinthians 15:58)
- B. God gives people to us in exchange for our lives. (Isaiah 54:2-3, Isaiah 43:4-6)
 - 1. This is the heart of the ministry—we give our lives for people to bear fruit for them.
 - 2. We are not to be afraid as a consequence.
- C. No matter the amount of promises made to us the answers are yes in Christ.

Application questions

1. Why can we say that God's promises are sure?

2. What are some of the corporate promises of the Bible? What are some individual ones?

3. Spend some time in the Bible—what stands out to you as sure things that you can claim in Christ's name as a believer?
