IS IT POSSIBLE TO HAVE PEACE IN A CHAOTIC WORLD?

Our lives are too busy, too occupied, and too hurried. Chaos presses us from all directions. It's not just external influences such as the explosive growth of technology, the threat of terrorism, and jam-packed schedules. Chaos also fills our hearts and minds as we wrestle with dissatisfaction, emptiness, failure, competition, worry, and anger. We tire of the unpredictability and disorder. We long for tranquility and quietness. Yet life goes on with little change.

Jerry White offers insights from his own years of living in life's trenches and making peace with his reality. With a look at the past, he reveals how we got to today's chaos and offers hope for a peaceful tomorrow. Offering practical suggestions for focusing on the meaning and purpose God has for each of us, Making Peace with Reality presents welcome solutions to surviving the chaotic storm swirling around us and inside us.

WARNING: DANGER AHEAD

There aren't always clear warning signs for the dangers a man will confront in his life. Hidden traps, unseen pitfalls, and unmarked detours can catch you unaware and send you sprawling or running in circles. How do you avoid these traps and continue to move forward?

In Dangers Men Face, Jerry White identifies five subtle dangers men face and offers strategies for safely traveling around them. From the loss of identity sparked by a family or career crisis to the discouraging entrapment of sexual sin, this encouraging resource will help you recognize these dangers and equip you to meet and overcome the challenges that lie ahead.

WE WANT TO BE MEN AND WOMEN OF INTEGRITY

But living honestly is tough - particularly when the standards for ethical behavior seem to shift and change constantly. There are many areas about which the Bible doesn't speak specifically. How do we know what to do about those "gray" areas of life?

Honesty, Morality and Conscience explores such topics as questionable business practices, lying, declining morals, sexual immorality, superficial relationships, and even our own self-deceit. He explains how following Scripture, the Holy Spirit, and our conscience leads ultimately to right convictions and right decisions.

COMMITMENTS THAT MAKE A DIFFERENCE

We want our lives to be successful and to count for something. But commitment is difficult to maintain in a society that primarily endorses upgrading to the newer and better model - from cars and electronics to friendships and even spouses. Yet only when we stand by our commitments can we make a real difference in our world.

The Power of Commitment offers sound biblical counsel for making lasting commitments in your spiritual life, personal disciplines, and relationships. You'll discover how to make realistic commitments and how to distinguish short-term commitments from lifelong ones. You'll learn how to defeat the enemies of commitment and say no to unnecessary commitments - without feeling guilty.
